

Integrating sustainability risk into remuneration policy

Management company's compensation structure allows taking sustainability risks into account in the remuneration of key personnel who make investment decisions.

The detailed principles of salary determination are set out in the salary determination policy of UAB "Capitalica Asset Management".