

Integration of sustainability risks into compensation policy

The compensation structure of the management company allows for consideration of sustainability risks when calculating the salaries of key employees involved in investment decisions.

The detailed principles for determining compensation are outlined in the compensation policy of UAB Capitalica Asset Management.